CONSTITUTION OF STUDENT BAR COUNCIL

Govt. Mizoram Law College
Reg. No. MSR 714 of 23.03.2016

To be printed in A5 size only.

FOREWORD

There exist no laws among mortals devoid of imperfections. Yet, it is the very nature of such legal statutes that they, as is customary, are susceptible to amendment, thereby signifying a life force and capacity for adaptation. Verily, laws achieve the zenith of their efficacy and import when they are tailored to address the exigencies of the evolving temporal and circumstantial milieu beyond their initial scope.

The Student Bar Council, inaugurated in the annum 1983, has embarked upon an extensive odyssey. The initial codification of the Council's constitution transpired on the 8th day of May in the year 2015, comprising therein 22 Articles. Following an undisturbed span of eight years without alteration, the inaugural move toward amendment was undertaken during the stewardship of the Student Bar Council for the academic sojourn of 2022-2023.

While the preliminary amendment, efficacious within the Council, failed to conform to the prerequisites enshrined in the Mizoram Firms and Societies Act of 2005, and indeed, the Constitution itself, a subsequent initiative was undertaken by the Student Bar Council for the academic term of 2023-2024. Inviting proposals from the entire pantheon of Council members, the First Amendment Bill of the Constitution of the Student Bar Council was duly ratified on the 1st day of August in the year 2023 (Tuesday). The said amendment came into effect on the 2nd day of August, 2023, consequent to the pronouncement by Mr. Lalsangkima, the President of the Student Bar Council for the term 2023-2024.

It is our fervent aspiration that this Constitution shall discharge its sacred functions with utmost efficacy, thereby aiding each member of the Council in the pursuit of their individual needs. In sooth, may it contribute to the enhancement, progression, and augmentation of legal erudition within the confines of the venerable State of Mizoram.

We entreat each member of the Council to dutifully abide by this Constitution, rendering it the due reverence and observance it commands.

As the ceaseless march of time unfolds, there shall inevitably arise a juncture necessitating further amendments to this Constitution. We steadfastly believe that any prospective amendments shall not transgress nor violate the Preamble of this venerable Constitution.
