SCHEDULE OF STUDY TOUR

Day 01 (Tuesday) : 10th Dec 2024

Supreme Court, New Delhi.

Departing Mizoram House, Vasant Vihar around 10 am, toward the Supreme Court and arrived by metro which helped us get there in time and less expenses. We were mostly guided by Immanuel Vanlalbelhtlaka Ralte, Student Bar Council President all the way to the Supreme Court from his experiences. Firstly we were a little bit confused about the entry of the Supreme Court but after a long wait we somehow managed to enter the gate of the Supreme Court, but not exactly inside the Courtroom. We took some group photos and took time to cherish the moment and we can tell that we are thankful to be able to visit such places as a Law Student from another state.

After a while, a few students decided to go to Parliament but sadly we found that it was not open for that day so we decided to go to India Gate around 1pm. There, we saw a lot of tourists, students having field trips and many other people who visited the India Gate. We are having so much fun, we took group photos and enjoyed the moment.

Day 02 (Wednesday) : 11th Dec 2024

Taj Mahal, Agra.

Departed from Mizoram House around 7:30 am. We went there by bus, though it was a long way, we were having fun by sleeping, singing and chatting, and at around 9 am we were having lunch at the highway restaurant as we were not able to have lunch in the house due to early departure.

Taj Mahal, Agra

Although it was winter, it was not as cold as we expected, the weather was nice and warm. We arrived at the Taj Mahal, Agra around 1:30 pm. It is needed to walk a few miles to get to the entry so we went there by small van which took us to the entry side where the token is needed in order to get in. There were a lot of small business owners, selling a different object and many more relating to Taj Mahal. We bought a few souvenirs for our parents and friends as well.

The place was wonderful, and we saw a lot of tourist and visitors, we enjoyed the whole moment and to our surprised some female student were mistaken as Korean girls by the other visitors and even took some pictures with us and even speak with us in Korean but after we told them that we are also Indian citizen just like them we burst out to laughter which made the whole moment more precious and memorable.

Taj Mahal Entry

Day 03 (Thursday) : 12th Dec 2024

Lotus Temple & Qutub Minar

Departing Mizoram House, Vasant Vihar at around 11am , we are visiting Lotus temple by Metro and Rickshaw. The entry of Lotus Temple was quite crowded as expected. The security was tight and well set, and again a lot of small business owners were present outside the Temple.

After being through the check gate we walked toward the main temple, to mention that the whole area and surrounding were so neat and clean, the grass and plants were so green and beautiful, the security can be seen everywhere, we took photos and videos and again many other visitors were visible as well. Near the main temple we were told to keep our shoes away by the security and its need to enter bare foot, the visitors of the temple were divided in groups and we were guided by the security, they informed us that it is a divine place and we need to respect and behave, they also informed us that we can pray if we want to. They let us take a small pamphlet which had a word of prayer in English and Hindi, the inside of Lotus Temple is quiet and clean, well managed and respectful. Soon we walk out of the temple , take back our shoes and leave the respected place. We love the place and we feel lucky to be able to visit such a place.

From Lotus Temple we went straight to Qutub Minar by Metro and rickshaw, before we enter we feed ourself outside the Qutub Minar and we begin the journey again. The inside of the Qutub Minar looks like a garden. We took group photos and we savored the moment again with joy.

Day 04 (Friday) & 05 (Saturday) : 13th & 14th Dec 2024

Day 06 (Sunday noon) : 15th Dec 2024

New Delhi to Guwahati train

Our returning journey, depart from Mizoram House, Vasant Vihar around 8:30 pm on sunday, arriving the Train Station by Uber at around 9:30 pm, the weather was cozy and unfortunately as we arrived the train station, we are separated into two groups unintentionally, the second groups almost gets lost for a while but after contract the other groups we were able to find a way through them again.

In the station due to early arrival, we have to wait for the train for like an hour as our train is boarding from Delhi at 11:45 pm. We sat beside the track along with other people, so we took the time to buy our need and refreshing ourself while waiting the train. One of the fun parts while we wait is that we watch a football match altogether at the station. To summarise the moment it was fun and memorable, and luckily no student has faced any trouble or any kind of sickness during this journey. Depart from New Delhi by train around 12:00 midnight. We seemed to be a little bit tired so we slept the night peacefully on the train.

Day 07 (Tuesday) : 17th Dec 2024 - *Railway Returning Journey

The next morning, unexpectedly we found the train in a clean and healthy condition, as for some student appearing to be our first time on the train we so far can handle the situation. One remarkable experience during this train journey is that we can never be off guard as we need to protect our belongings, all the students were not able to stay in the same flat with other students, and few students were having issues for not being able to use the train toilet apart from that no other issues arise. But at the same time the customer care in the train was good, food was served on time, eventually we were able to spend the whole day normally.

Departing from the train Station at around 8:00 am in the morning, by uber we were able to arrived the Guwahati Airport at around 9:00 am, we still have time as the departure of our flight is at 12:55 pm, so we again divided in groups and went for lunch one groups after one groups, the remaining student groups guide our belonging while the others are having lunch, by that we enter inside the airport and after we went through all the check-in process we manage to get to the waiting flat, again no student has faced difficulty or issued during this time.

Departing from Guwahati Airport at exactly 12:55 pm toward Lengpui Airport, Aizawl, the duration of the fight was only one hour, and we arrived at Aizawl around 1:55 pm on 17th December 2024. After having a meal we departed from Lengpui Airport at around 2:00 pm by bus, and without having any issues each student managed to get home safely. And with this our trips come to an end.
